

BUST-A-MOVE 4 LAUNCHES ON THE PSN FOR PLAYSTATION 3 & VITA

The Fan Favorite Returns to Much Fanfare!

Burlingame, CA. - April 29, 2014 - Natsume Inc., a worldwide developer and publisher of family-oriented video games, is excited to release their title, Bust-A-Move 4, on the PlayStation Network store beginning today and playable on both PlayStation 3 and PlayStation Vita! Bust-A-Move 4 is rated "E" for Everyone and can be downloaded from the US PSN for $5.99.

"We have been working to bring this classic PlayStation title back to our fans, and we were excited to see after much work that dream come true," said Hiro Maekawa, CEO of Natsume Inc. "We're always reviewing our catalogue and making every effort to bring classic titles to our fans to enjoy again – or for the first time!"

Bust-A-Move 4 is widely considered the best game in the Bust-A-Move series, and was originally released in the arcades and on multiple systems, including the Sega Dreamcast, Nintendo GameBoy Color, Windows PCs, and the original PlayStation, which Natsume Inc. published in 1998. This was the first title to introduce both the pulley and chain reactions. Featuring the iconic anthropomorphic dinosaur blobs, Bub and Bob, this dino duo must rescue the seven shattered rainbow bubbles alongside a cast of series favorites.

Bust-a Move 4 features eight playable modes, including Puzzle Mode, Versus Mode, and Edit Mode, where players can create up to 25 of their own personal stages! With ten playable characters and four additional characters that can be unlocked, there's plenty of ways to chase after Madame Luna!
