

HARVEST MOON: THE LOST VALLEY RELEASES LARGEST DLC CONTENT UPDATE YET WITH TWO NEW MARRIAGE CANDIDATES!

Walk Down the Aisle with Luke or Andrea, Get New Customization Options, Outfits, and Much More with Newest Downloadable Content

Burlingame, CA. – June 16, 2015 -- Natsume Inc., a worldwide developer and publisher of family-oriented video games, today launched two all-new downloadable content packs for Harvest Moon: The Lost Valley for Nintendo 3DS. Each contains a new marriageable candidate, as well as new customization options for the main character. Both DLC packs are available now for $1.49 on the 3DS eShop.

"As the first Harvest Moon with DLC, we were able to provide new life to the game ever since its launch in November," said Hiro Maekawa, President and CEO at Natsume. "Fans who haven't heard the ring of wedding bells yet now have a pair of new candidates to woo and marry, along with other special treats!"

Two new residents have moved to Hillsville: Luke, an herbalist, and Andrea, a clocksmith. Each come with their own set of quests and requests, along with romantic events. This new downloadable content is the fourth set of released DLC packs, the previous of which includes additional crops and flowers, new outfits and hairstyles, along with new decorations and a builder's set! Many of these sets are free to download!

In addition, Harvest Moon: The Lost Valley launches on June 19th in European territories, published by Rising Star Games. And farmers who enjoy classic Harvest Moon titles can also celebrate the launch of Harvest Moon: Friends of Mineral Town on the North American Wii U eShop (out now)!
